What is Junior Theatre Festival:

The Junior Theater Festival (JTF) is the world's biggest and best celebration of young people performing musical theater. JTF brings together student musical theater troupes from all over the world for a weekend of musical theater mayhem and madness. Each troupe performs fifteen minutes from a Broadway Junior® show for adjudication by a panel of musical theater experts. The weekend also features professional development for teachers, workshops for students and parents, a New Works Showcase featuring new musical adaptations soon to be released and concludes with a grand finale concert headlined by Broadway's best!

The Junior Theater Festival is sponsored by Playbill, Disney Musicals, and Music Theatre International.

Festival Details:

Registration Fee = $55 per performing student
All Access JTF participation wristband = $300 per person (student/parent)

Each person who attends JTF must be registered with their group, including directors, students, chaperones, and parents. Each festival attendee is required to pay the $300 per person participation fee. A minimum of 20 participants per group is required (including directors, students, chaperones, and parents).

You will not be able to register individuals at Festival Sign-In the weekend of the festival. Day passes are not available.
